

Workshop on harmonisation of trade and supply licenses

13 September 2017 | 9:30 – 14:00

Energy Community Secretariat, Am Hof 4, Level 6, 1010 Vienna

Chaired by the Energy Community Secretariat

Meeting material: Proposal for harmonization of trade and supply licenses

As of 9:00 welcome coffee and registration

9:30	Opening	Dirk Buschle Energy Community Secretariat, Deputy Director
9:45	Harmonization of trade and supply licenses <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Problem definition - Policy target - Proposal presentation Discussion	Nina Grall Energy Community Secretariat, Head of Regulatory Board Section Milka Mumovic Energy Community Secretariat, Electricity Expert
10:45	What is the problem with licenses? – The view of traders	EFET
11:10	Coffee break
11:30	To which extent can REMIT replace licenses?	Arben Kllokoqi Energy Community Secretariat, Electricity Expert
11:50	A market without license regime – regulatory experience	Johannes Mayer E-Control Austria, Head of Competition and Regulation Department
12:10	Panel discussion: EU models <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Gas Regional Initiative SSE model: Balázs Sándor, Hungarian Energy Regulatory Authority - The Baltic model: Inga Balabkina, Latvian Public Utilities Commission Questions and answers	Moderation: Nina Grall Energy Community Secretariat
13:10	Roundtable: the view of participants and way forward	Participants
13:45	Wrap-up and conclusions	Energy Community Secretariat
14:00	Close of the meeting Farewell lunch	