"He remains calm even when the tension is raised by the opposing counsel."
Client Feedback, Chambers Global

Arne is a partner and global head of Ashurst's practice for international arbitration.

Working with a multinational team of lawyers, Arne specializes on complex contractual disputes and matters arising in the context of foreign investments. He is a trusted advisor to clients around the world and has acted on some of the most high-profile and politically sensitive matters of recent years. His experience spans across industry sectors, with a particular focus on construction, energy, large scale infrastructure; and mining projects. He and his team assist clients from the inception stage of a project, incl. in the initial contract negotiations, to ensure that disputes are prevented where possible and effective remedies to resolve disputes exists. Arne has acted in disputes under a wide variety of applicable laws and under most major arbitration rules around the world, including the ICSID Convention, UNCITRAL Rules, the ICC-, LCIA-, HKIAC-, SCAI-, SCC- and DIS-/ DIS-IHK-/ DIS-Sport-Rules, as well as in pure ad hoc arbitration.

In addition to his role as counsel, Arne is also sought after as (sole, co-, presiding) arbitrator. Chambers Europe und Chambers Global recognize Arne as one of the most in demand arbitrators from Germany. He is a Fellow of the Malaysian Institute of Arbitrators (FMI Arb) and was appointed to the list of arbitrators of the Japan Commercial Arbitration Association (JCAA), the Panel of Arbitrators of the Asian International Arbitration Centre (AIAC), the pool of arbitrators and mediators at the Court of Arbitration for Art (CAfA) in The Hague, Netherlands as well as the Panel of Mediators of the Energy Community in Vienna, Austria. He is also a Member of the HKIAC Users' Council.

Arne is recognized as a "Global Leader" and "National Leader (Germany)" by Global Arbitration Review (GAR) 2024. Similarly, leading directories such as GAR 100, Chambers, Legal 500 and the Expert Guide Commercial Arbitration recommend him for his dispute resolution expertise. His peers and clients describe him as "a prominent name in the investment arbitration space" with "a very strong presence", "an excellent lawyer and arbitrator", "one of the top choices", "THE name for investment arbitration in Germany", "always one of the smartest in a room and a very quick thinker", "very smart", and "phenomenally hard working".

He serves as delegate of the German National Committee of the ICC on the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR and is a member of the Arbitration Committee of the International Bar Association (IBA).

Arne regularly teaches workshops and classes around the world.
