

04.08.2013

Helmut Schmitt von Sydow

Helmut Schmitt von Sydow is Professor for European Law at the University of Lausanne and at the European College of Parma. He has studied Economics and Law at the Universities of Frankfurt, Geneva and Berlin.

From 1971 to 2008 he worked for the European Commission in Brussels principally in the areas of the internal market, industry, energy and external relations. In the 70s and 80s he was responsible for infringement procedures concerning the free circulation of goods. In 1993 he became spokesman for President Delors with special focus on the application of Community law and legal affairs. In 1996 he was appointed Director for Capital Goods Industries, later for Conventional Sources of Energy, and finally Chief Legal Adviser to the Director general for Energy and Transport.

Mr von Sydow chaired the intergovernmental conference that negotiated, in 2004 and 2005, the Treaty establishing the Energy Community.

He has written several books and numerous articles on European Law with special emphasis on internal market policies and on institutional issues, including Article 7 of the EU-Treaty that corresponds to the dispute settlement Article 92 of the Energy Community Treaty. He is co-editor of the Revue du Droit de l'Union européenne and chief editor of the European Energy Journal.